SKILLS TAUGHT ACROSS HISTORY Y10 Key events, organisations and people. Key disciplinary skills such as cause and Medicine on Britain consequence, significance, change and continuity, similarity and difference in the 1250-modern day acquisition of this historical knowledge. Autumn Historic environment study: Term medicine on the Western Front during the WW1 Spring Anglo-Saxon and Norman England c1060-c1088 Term Summer The American West c1830-1890 Term The American West Autumn c1830-1890 Term Spring The USA- conflict at home and Term abroad 1954-75 Class-specific revision and interventions Revision foci will differ between groups and students to ensure their assessment data is used to direct teaching Summer and independent learning. Term KS5 GCSE HISTORY SKILLS: Studying GCSE History can lead Final Exams Our aim in History is that all students understand their you to a wide variety of place in Britain in the 21st century and understand how courses at KS5. history has shaped the world and current events. Budding A Level History, A Level Law, A historians are encouraged to think critically, make reasoned Level Politics, A Level arguments and debate their opinions Philosophy to name a few.